

Ashton Wylie
CHARITABLE TRUST

2012 – The Biology of Business “Why Relationships Matter Most”

Programme

INTRODUCTION EVENING

Auckland - Friday MARCH 30th 2012, 7.30PM-10.00PM
@Hopetoun Alpha 19 Beresford Square Auckland

1 DAY IN-DEPTH EXPERIENCE

Auckland - Saturday MARCH 31st 2012, 9AM -5.30PM
*@ Massey University Albany Campus - University Avenue, Albany, North Shore,
Gate 1 - Sir Neil Waters Lecture Theatres - Level 2; Lecture Theatre : L2 12*

Programme of events: Introduction Evening Friday March 30th 2012

7.30pm	Welcome and introduction of the speaker: 10 minutes
7.40pm – 9.00pm	Title: “Nature’s Living Economies: Clues to Our Future in Four Billion Years of Successful Enterprise” Presenter: Elisabet Sahtouris, PhD Duration: 1:20 minutes
9.00-10.00pm	Questions from Audience Opportunities for book signings
9.00pm 10.00pm	Official End of Program

Ashton Wylie
CHARITABLE TRUST

The Biology of Business: “Why Relationships Matter Most”

Programme of events: 1 Day in Depth Experience
Saturday March 31st 2012

Massey University Albany Campus - University Avenue, Albany, North Shore,
Gate 1 - Sir Neil Waters Lecture Theatres - Level 2; Lecture Theatre : L2 12

8.30am	Registration
9.00am – 9.30am	Welcome & Brief information re AWCT AWCT Trustee: Duration: 30 minutes
9.30am - 10.30am	Title: “Relevance of Fri evening talk to participants’ businesses” Presenter: Elisabet Sahtouris Brief participant introductions A dialogue on the previous evening's lecture, with clarification and amplification as needed. Participants describe their businesses and their concerns for them as we navigate crises into the future. Mapping these concerns; looking for potentially more fruitful relationships within our businesses and with stakeholders. Duration: 1 hour
10.30am – 11.00am	Morning Tea
11.00 am - 12.15pm	Title “Relationship Principles in Living Economies” Introduction and explanation of 16 relationship principles found in Nature’s most sustainably evolved living entities/economies Taking into account the concerns mapped in the previous session, we identify which features of healthy living systems in Nature are currently present in our businesses and which we could evolve to improve their capacity for improved functioning in the future. Duration: 1 ¼ hours

12.15pm 1.15pm	Lunch
1.15pm – 2.45pm Talk plus dialogue	Title: “Evolving Relationships as Business Shifts its Goals from Growth to Stability; from Competition to Cooperation” A brief talk about how relationships with community, both local and national, are more critical to the survival of businesses as our entire economies shift from competition to cooperation for the sake of all our survival. Small group dialogues about practical implementation, followed by whole group sharing Duration: 1 ½ hours
2.45pm – 3.15pm	Afternoon Tea
3.15pm – 4.45pm	Title: “Scenario Building and Practical Next Steps” By this time issues for further exploration will have surfaced and some potential new relationships will have developed. To weave these together, we will engage as a group in building scenarios of how business will lead the way through whatever crises New Zealand faces in climate, energy, money, etc. We should end on a very positive note with practical project ideas. Duration: 1 ½ hours
4.45pm – 5.15pm	Question and Answer